POLO TEAM LOST GAME AND CANADIAN HONORS BY A SOLITARY POINT

GAME WAS CLOSE AND EXCITING THROUGHOUT

M. A. A. A. SEXTETTE DEFEAT MCGILL'S AGNATIC EXPERTS BY THE CLOSE SCORE OF 3-2

First Goal Secured by Frank McGill in Splendid Style in Less than One Minutes' Play—Game was Even Till Third Quarter, and Very Clean Throughout—Defence Play of Red and white Team was Excellent

On Saturday night McGill was beaten by the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association Polo Team in one of the most exciting of water polo games ever played in the city. Long before the appointed hour a large crowd of spectators had assembled in the Laurentian Baths, and by the time the game started the building was filled to its utmost capacity.

The M.A.A.A. won the toss and chose the deep end for the first quarter. The McGill team entered the water at 8.40 ten minutes after the time scheduled for the game to start.

M.A.A.A. MCGILL.

The two teams lined up as follows:
Goal Rust Egerton
Defence L. Earle, L. Smith
R. McLean, Baldwin
Forward G. Ritchie, P.B. Buckley
J. Cairns, F. McGill
C. H. Crowdy, McKay.

Officials:—
Referee—G. Moore; Judge of play, Gathercole; time-keeper, Golden; Penalty time-keepers, Norris and Ross.

The game was very keenly contested throughout, but it was a great pity that the Referee had to blow his whistle so frequently on account of infringement of the rules. Right from the beginning of the game McGill pressed hard, and in the first half-minutes play Frank McGill put the ball between the M.A.A.A. goal posts. Though often only missing by inches the McGill team failed to score again in the first quarter. In the second quarter McGill were defending the deep end, and therefore played on the defensive, it being very difficult to shallow end. The M.A.A.A. now pressed hard, and in spite of the good defensive work of Lee Smith and Baldwin, they registered a goal after three minutes play. Egerton was playing the game of his life in goal, once again before half-time the M.A.A.A. scored leaving the score at M.A.A.A. 2, McGill 1.

With the M.A.A.A. in the deep end McGill pressed hard. Twice within the first minute the ball was behind the M.A.A.A. goal-keeper, only a few

WEAKENED BASKETBALL TEAM SHOWED SURPRISING FORM DEFEATING SENIOR Y.M.C.A.

In Spite of the Fact that Members of the Team were Unable to Play, Because they were Taking Part in the Water Polo Contest, the Team Won Out

FAST ASSOCIATED TEAM LOST ON HOME FLOOR

Prospects of Senior McGill Team are Bright this Year

Saturday afternoon the McGill Basketball team won a fast game from the Central Y.M.C.A. on their own floor. Although handicapped by the absence of Smith and Baldwin who were resting up for the polo game in the evening the team surprised the supporters by the score of 41-20. Forbes replaced Calder on the defence and Tiny replaced Baldwin at centre, while Willisroft a second team man took Smith's place at right forward, Kennedy and Duffield rounding out the five. Calder—the big Captain—played a brilliant game at centre although he has not played that position since 1910 and with Forbes who played on the Varsity two years ago was a source of strength to the defence. Willisroft showed up well and should be one of the mainstays of the team in the near future. Duffield and Kennedy of last years championship team played their usual consistent game.

The game started with both teams playing a strong defensive style of play, McGill scoring two points on fouls. Then Calder, Kennedy, and Willisroft scored in rapid succession. The "Y" team came back strong but McGill soon had a safe lead which could not be overcome, the half-time score ending 19-11.

The play became faster in the second period but the McGill five soon showed better condition than their rivals winning out by the comfortable score of 41-20.

McGill play their first Intercollegiate fixture with Queens on Friday next at the Central "Y" and should score a close victory.

Queens gave Toronto a close run 40-50 and will bear looking after. However with the "Red Five" and such material as McTavish, Honey, and Willisroft, McGill has a host of good material and should with hard practice bring another championship to the University.

The teams lined up as follows:—
Forwards Kennedy—Armstrong
Willisroft—Saunders
Centre Calder—Forbes.
Defence Duffield—Goodfellow
Forbes—Beecher.

Summary—Calder 13, Kennedy 12, Willisroft 8, Forbes 4, Duffield 4, "Y"—Armstrong 7, Saunders 6, Forbes 4, Beecher 4.

THE DAILY AND SOCIALISM

We publish in another column a letter regarding the undesirability of establishing a Chapter of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society of this University. In the conclusion of his letter our correspondent says, "Your columns have been setting forth the religious campaign just inaugurated by the McGill Y.M.C.A., and the great advantages lying open to the average student therefrom. The setting up of socialism, anti-religious, anti-christian, amongst us, would be a strange antithesis."

The writer suffers from a slight misconception which we feel we must correct. The Daily has in no way undertaken, either in its news or editorial columns, to advocate the establishment of such a society here. When we see fit to boast any undertaking we do so openly and to the best of our ability. Our correspondent, would do well in future to distinguish between "news" and a desire to introduce new institutions at McGill University.

We would also like to recommend our correspondent to a closer consideration of our editorial "Concerning a Misconception" where he has also misread us. Our words were, "Socialism nowadays stands for harmony, co-operation and a community of interests as the socialists see these matters."

As our correspondent seems to be in some doubt as to the aims of the "Daily" we take pleasure in republishing the "platform" of the paper which appeared in the first issue last year and which we have seen absolutely no reason to alter in any way.

We are here:

- 1.—To act as an effective medium of correspondence between undergraduates, faculty, governors, and alumni. We intend to keep every McGill man, old and young, well-informed on news of his University.
- 2.—To BOOST all feasible schemes of university improvement.
- 3.—To oppose fearlessly and unceasingly anything that savours of sectionalism in McGill University.
- 4.—To act as the official organ of all University announcements.
- 5.—To keep McGill in constant touch with the great University world of Canada, the British Isles, and the United States.

EDITORIAL NOTE.

It is to be sincerely hoped for many reasons that the Liberal rally this afternoon and the Conservative rally on Wednesday evening prove more successful than the unfortunate fiasco of last Friday night. It might seem, however, as if the conservatives were again courting disaster as the Arts Undergraduate Smoker takes place on Wednesday evening and we fear that the delights of the fragrant weed may distract the attention of many party adherents from the meeting that evening.

LIBERALS! NOTICE!

Meeting for Organization at Strathcona Hall
at 5 p. m. To-day

Great interest is being manifested in the propaganda which is being carried on by the members of the Liberal party at McGill, in view of the approaching session of the Mock Parliament. A meeting of Liberals is therefore called for five p.m. to-day, solely for purposes of organization. Among other appointments to be made are those of leader of the Liberal forces, whips, etc.

It is urged that all men of Liberal leanings will turn out to this meeting, which is called at a convenient hour, and which will not be allowed to grow wearisome by longwinded oratorical outbursts.

Remember, Liberals! Five p.m. to-day at Strathcona Hall.

STRONG PROTEST REGISTERED AGAINST ESTABLISHMENT OF A SOCIALIST SOCIETY HERE

Actions of Socialists in the States Calls Forth Caustic Comment from Correspondent who Claims that Introduction of Socialism into McGill is Entirely Undesirable

SOCIALISM IS SAID TO BE ANTI-CHRISTIAN

Strong Letter Published Below is Entirely Unfavorably to Any Action Being Taken in the Matter

Jan. 10th, 1913.
The Editor of McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:
In to-day's edition of the Daily, question is raised in regard to the establishment at McGill of a chapter of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society.

At the outset I would like to register an emphatic negative to such a proposal, being convinced that a Socialist Society at McGill would be most detrimental to the success and progress of our University. In the last few years we have seen a remarkable development of college spirit by the students, and of loyalty to their Alma Mater by our graduates, thanks being due to the efforts of the Students' Council, and to the able seconding given it by the Daily. Let us hope that our paper's energies will not now be put forth in tearing down what is accomplished. But a few months ago the deplorable scene was witnessed in New York City of Socialists tearing down and spitting upon the Stars and Stripes, the flag that gives them freedom and protection. Everyone is familiar with the outrages committed by the Socialists at the recent strikes at Lawrence, Mass., and renewed insults to the American flag, which caused the citizens of that city to rise up in protest. Wm. D. Haymond, the leader of the United Workers of the World, the extreme branch of the Socialist organization in the United States, is a professed revolutionist and the question of deporting him has arisen. Let us again hope that no opportunity will be given for the propagation of such doctrines here in our midst. The Socialists stand for anything but harmony as our editorial comments. Wherever they gain a footing there is disorder and mal-administration, as was lately shown in the city of Milwaukee, Ill. In great part the Socialists are foreigners or of foreign extraction, men who have come to our shores and to the shores of the United States from lands where the voice of freedom is little known; they come imbued with hatred for the government of their land and go to swell the Socialist's ranks in our country, not being able or willing to recognize the great freedom we enjoy. You will find, sir, I venture, that among any Socialists in our midst here at McGill the majority will be foreigners, or the sons of foreigners.

By all means should our fellow students acquire complete knowledge of social conditions and economic problems, and of the standpoint of Socialism on these and other questions but these will not be obtained by the introduction of Socialism into our University.

Your columns have been setting forth the religious campaign just inaugurated by the McGill Y. M. C. A., and the great advantages lying open to the average student therefrom. The setting up of Socialism, anti-religious, anti-Christian, amongst us, would be a strange antithesis.

Thanking you, sir, for space
Yours truly,
J. C. WICKHAM.

CONSERVATIVE RALLY WILL NOW BE TRIED ON NEXT WEDNESDAY

Undaunted by Recent Fiasco
Opposition Leaders Boldly
Face the Future

Owing to the counter attraction on Friday evening it was thought advisable to adjourn the Conservative mass meeting to Wednesday evening at eight o'clock in Strathcona Hall. It was rather unfortunate that so many functions should have been taking place on the same evening, but it so happened and with a dampening effect which was felt by all. Those in charge of the Liberal-Conservative organization felt that they could best afford to hold their rally on some other evening when it would be more convenient for all to attend and when it would not conflict with any other important meeting in connection with the student body.

The speakers of the evening were of the same opinion and expressed their willingness to return on the following Wednesday evening. We certainly appreciate very much their kindness in this respect and regret very much any inconvenience to which they were put as well as the inconvenience caused to a number of the students who were in attendance.

The meeting on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock will be of a similar nature to that which was announced for Friday with a few added attractions as speakers. The committee in charge have been most fortunate in securing for the evening one of the finest slate of speakers that has anywhere appeared on the same platform. It includes among others, Senator Rufus Pope, Geo. H. Baker, K.C., M.P., A. DeW. Foster, B.A., M.P.; H. B. Ames, B.A., M.P.; A. Papineau-Mathieu, K.C., Guy M. Drummond, B.A., and Maracheal Nantel, B.C.L. These men are certainly everyone worth hearing and no student should consider that he can afford to miss this opportunity of hearing the views of our leading politicians on the leading Canadian political questions of the day.

Another feature of Wednesday's rally will be the presence of ladies in the audience, to whom a special invitation is extended. We feel that the gathering would not be complete without them, and not only that but we feel that they too take a deep interest in the leading political events, and would like to hear them discussed. Special arrangements have been made for their accommodation and the right hand front seats will be placed at their disposal. This pertains not only to the ladies of the University, but to all others who are at all interested and who would like to attend. A cordial invitation is also extended to the public and we trust that the students will make it known among their friends as we desire to see Strathcona Hall well filled for this occasion.

The Mock Parliament is to open a week from Tuesday, and in order to make this opening night a success it is necessary that both parties should be well organized and prepared to make the McGill Parliament a decided success this year. It is thus imperative that a certain amount of interest should be taken by the students in these organization meetings of the different parties and encourage the respective leaders by their presence. At the Conservative meeting on Wednesday evening the party whips are to be appointed and other necessary business transacted, and probably a new leader elected, so we urge our supporters to attend and have their friends with them. In fact every student who intends taking any part in the coming Mock Parliament, or who is at all interested in its success should be in his place at Strathcona Hall on Wednesday evening of this week at eight o'clock sharp.

Although Queens did not have a holiday hockey series, the executive things is not whether, but how much being as soon as possible. A game has been arranged in Toronto with Parkdale for next Tuesday, and negotiations are under way for an early visit by the fast St. Michaels septette to the limestone city.

A joint meeting of the two French Societies, the "Societe Francaise" and the "Cercle Francais" was held Friday afternoon in the Common Room of the R.V.C. M. Surveyer, vice-president of the "Amiance Francaise" who consented to address the meeting chose as his subject "La Chanson Moderne." M. Surveyer spoke for half an hour very entertainingly, illustrating his address by signing several of the "Chansons" mentioned. These were of a light, satirical nature and brought out very well that side of the French character with which students of French are too seldom brought in contact, that "cote" railleur, blagueur which is one of their chief charms. M. Surveyer pointed out that amusing and pleasing as these songs were their very nature made them ephemeral—that they were apt to be forgotten with the events of which they sang. M. du Rowe thanked the speaker and expressed his appreciation of the address. Tea was then served and the meeting adjourned.

R. M. C. and Queens are Rounding into Shape for Intercollegiate Season

Queen's hockey team had a workout at the covered rink on Wednesday noon. The ice was in good condition and the men had a good workout for about an hour. The next practice will be held on Thursday afternoon, from five to six o'clock. The following players were on the ice on Wednesday: Smith, Blaklee, Moxley, Dafeo, Box, McKinnon, Keeley, Kennedy, Bates, L. Smith, Rait, Bissonnette and Cheney. The team held a practice at the Palace rink on Tuesday. The team should be in good shape for the game at McGill on January 18th.

With most of its last year's players available, the senior team at the Royal Military College will again make a strong, and, very likely a winning bid for the intermediate intercollegiate hockey championship this season. The cadets have returned after the holidays and, with this ice-making weather, should have a practice before long. Up to the present there has been no ice on the college rink. As well as the first line there is the junior team to whip into shape to compete in the junior intercollegiate. The seniors have two games to play with Queen's 11 before January 28th.

Of last year's red and white line remain Blackstock, between the posts Barwis, point, and Capt. Paterson, cover point. Galt plays rover, but Sutherland, who centred for the aggregation last year has graduated. Slater looks good for that position. MacAuley and Carruthers are again available for the wings.

THE MONTHLY SUPPER TAKES PLACE TO-DAY AT STRATHCONA HALL

Owing to the illness of Mr. Chas. Paterson, he will be unable to speak in Strathcona Hall on Monday evening. Mr. Robertson will give an address on Mission Study, and to put forward the claims of Bible Study the association has secured the popular ex-secretary at the Hall, Russell Paterson.

The Monthly Supper will take place at 6.15 p.m. Mr. Paterson will give a short address at 7 p.m. and this will be followed by Mr. Robertson's. As some people have understood from the account in Thursday's Daily that the Science Faculty were not to be canvassed at all, let it be explained that their canvass will take place immediately after the exams, which start on the 20th of this month. Science men, however, will be expected to turn up at the meeting to-night.

inches from the imaginary goal line, but on each occasion Rust, the M.A.A.A. goal-keeper, succeeded in clearing before a McGill man could give the ball a deciding push. Some good combination among the McGill forwards resulted in Peter Buckley scoring. Score 2 all.

McGill continued to press until three-quarter time.

The M.A.A.A. now had the advantage of shooting into the deep end, but it was long time before they succeeded in scoring. The McGill team as before, played three defence men, McKay joining Smith and Baldwin. Crowdie did a lot of shooting for the M.A.A.A., but was very wild. Frank McGill made a brilliant individual swim and shot, the ball striking the inside of the post and bouncing inwards. Many of those near the goal posts thought it was a goal, but unfortunately the goal-judge thought otherwise—and after all he can see best, and in any case his opinion is the one that counts. Rust threw out the ball to Ritchie, who made a great swim down the Bath with Smith hard after him; he had a shot at goal but misses. Cairns put the finishing touches to his work scoring with a hard shot in the corner of the goal. Score M.A.A.A. 3, McGill 2.

A hard fight ensued but the McGill men were unable to score again before the whistle blew for time, leaving the M.A.A.A. the victors.

The game was one in which luck played an important part. Perhaps more scientific games have been played, but few have been more exciting and of greater interest to the spectators.

The followers of McGill though outnumbered by those of the M.A.A.A., were by no means outshouted by the latter; however we fear that their vocal organs will take a day or two to recuperate.

THE GAME IN DETAIL.

The Referee's whistle blew at 8.40. Frank McGill was first at the ball and passed to McKay, who shot; Rust saved and passed to Ritchie. F. McGill secured the ball and swam to within eight feet of the M.A.A.A. goal; Earle ducked him, and kept him under water. McGill came up and shot, scoring the first goal within the first half-minute of play.

In the race for the ball Frank McGill again was first and passed to McKay. Cairns secured the ball and was attacked by McKay and F. McGill at once, for which a free throw was given. Several free throws were awarded to both teams for infringements of the rules. Crowdie took a long shot but missed. Ritchie got the ball but was attacked by Smith before he could take a shot. A long wrestle ensued in the shallow end between Ritchie and Smith. The referee ending the struggle by throwing the ball in between them. Crowdie took a hard shot; Egerton saved and passed to Buckley. The latter made a long individual swim down the side of the bath and shot; Rust saved. Free throws were given in turn against Crowdie, F. McGill, and Ritchie. McLean playing defence for M.A.A.A. took a long shot to clear but was wide. There was some combination between the McGill forwards, who were attacking when the whistle blew for quarter-time. McGill 1. M.A.A.A. 0.

SECOND QUARTER

Crowdie reached the ball first and passed to Ritchie who shot. Egerton saved and passed to Buckley. Some good combination by the M.A.A.A. forwards resulted in a shot by Ritchie which went wide. The M.A.A.A. forwards continued to press, Ritchie again missing. Baldwin cleared, passing to Buckley. Crowdie was ordered out for a minute for fouling Buckley. Cairns made a good swim for the M.A.A.A., Smith attacked but he put the ball through the posts with a good back-hander. McGill 1. M.A.A.A. 1.

Frank McGill got the ball, passed to McKay; Cairns gained possession and passed to Ritchie who made a magnificent swim with Buckley hard after him and put the ball into the net. McGill 1. M.A.A.A. 2.

SECOND HALF.

F. McGill secured the ball and passed to Buckley who swam down and shot; Rust missed, but the ball hit the post and remained an inch or two from the line. Rust cleared. Buckley was given a free throw from Ritchie and passed to F. McGill. The latter shot and again McGill lost a goal by only a matter of inches. Rust passed to Crowdie who shot a goal; the latter was standing when he shot, the goal being disallowed. F. McGill made a fine individual swim up to the posts and passed to Buckley who scored. McGill 2; M.A.A. 2.

Crowdie secured the ball but Cairns lost it to Smith who took a long shot; Rust saved. McKay took a shot, Rust saved and passed to Cairns. Smith took the ball down near the M.A.A.A. goal and passed to McKay, the latter's shot missed.

FOURTH QUARTER.

Crowdie got the ball and passed to Cairns, who shot and missed. The referee ended a long struggle between Ritchie and Smith by throwing the ball in. Smith passed to F. McGill. Earle saved and passed to Crowdie whose shot missed. Egerton passed to Baldwin but was attacked by Cairns; a prolonged struggle ensued, Crowdie finally taking the ball. His shot went high. Egerton passed to Smith who transferred it to F. McGill. The latter shot. There was a discussion as to whether the ball went through the posts or not, the judge deciding it had not. Rust passed to Crowdie, Baldwin attacking before he could get his shot in. The whistle blew and Crowdie put the ball between the posts. Crowdie passed to Ritchie who shot. Egerton saved, passing to Buckley. Ritchie secured possession and made a good swim, Smith being in close attendance. The former shot wide. Egerton passed to McKay, Earle getting possession and passing to Cairns, the latter scoring the winning goal for M.A.A.A. McGill 2, M.A.A.A. 3.

The McGill team exerted themselves to their utmost to score again. On one occasion, after a fine piece of combination, F. McGill nearly succeeded in scoring, Rust saving well. The whistle blew for time, the M.A.A.A. taking the City Championship. The McGill team took their beating well, and were soon discussing their chances for next season.

Frank McGill played a great game throughout, his fast swimming and under-water tactics serving the team to great advantage. Peter Buckley played a sound game throughout, keeping his head in spite of the tactics of the man marking him. He combined well with Frank McGill.

McKay, the manager of the Club, came in at the last moment to replace Kerry, who was unfortunately unable to play. In spite of this being his first match this season, he played a great game. Lee Smith was kept busy by the M.A.A.A. forwards, but his long experience served him to great advantage, and he was more than a match for them.

Sid Baldwin was always close on his man and threw away no chances. Egerton at goal played a great game, quite exceeding himself.
